

Fionnghuala – Arr. Michael McGlynn

No translation available...other than (maybe) something to the effect:

The blacksmith said, “I’ll go (out the door of the barn) and go courting.”

And then words to the effect that he might also go hunting and fishing as he was “knocking the spots off the birds” speaking also of the hakes and “the little pollocks of the sea.”

Or it could be simply be nonsense syllables!
